BREEDING EWES - 778

Auctioneer - Robert Meadmore

A similar number of sheep forward, with the emphasis shifting towards the younger sheep. Quality show of yearlings with plenty of customers around the ringside for all breeds. Suffolk yearlings to £168 and then £164, £161 (twice) and £158. Texel yearlings to £158, £152 and £150. North Country Mule yearlings to £140. After these pens a selection of yearlings, all breeds from £100 to £130. Not quite the show of older ewes as recent weeks, nevertheless Suffolk 3 and 4 years to £128, £125 and then several from £100 to £120. Full mouth Texel ewes to £116, North Country Mules similar age to £110. Texel x Dorset 3's and 4's to £120 (twice) and again at £118. As ever some sheep sold between £70 and £100 of all breeds.

STORE LAMBS - 1539

Auctioneer - Greg Christopher

A larger entry of store lambs with a higher proportion of smaller, longer term lambs on show. A strong ring of purchasers saw trade slightly dearer on the week.

The strength is very easy to place topping at £101 for a smart pen of 16 Texel x lambs. Other strong, clean and ram lambs all £80 to £97.50. A super bunch of Charollais farming lambs to £87, with a bunch of 50 Suffolk x wether lambs to £84. Farming lambs all £72 to £80 although fewer of these forward this week.

A good show of medium keeping lambs - these trading £62 to £70 throughout with plenty of bunches late £60's. Smaller types but well bred £62 to £65 with plenty of customers keen to source these types of lambs. A larger show of longer term lambs with well bred types all £56 to £61.50 with most hitting £60, smaller plainer types £48 to £55, with very small types from £35 to £45 but all meeting excellent competition. Again several ram lambs on show, strong sorts with condition few and far between but all £80 to £90. Southdown ram lambs to £89.50!!

Farming bunches £68 to £78 depending on condition, with smaller and plainer types from £55 to £65. Some smaller sorts and hill bred types £40 to £50.
