PRIME HOGGS - 695

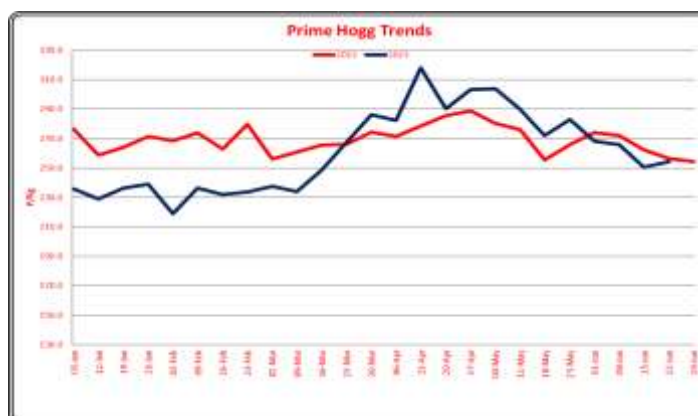

Auctioneer - Greg Christopher

Still plenty of life in the hogs, quality would be more mixed with fewer better runs of hogs presented, a larger percentage being Hill types this week. Well meated heavier hogs still remain the easiest sold with several penfuls trading £120 - £135. Heavier hogs topped at £164 others from £135 - £152.50. Better bred hogs still 265p - 285p/kg, with hogs topping at 298p/kg.

Lighter hogs remaining harder work than the heavier types, 200p - 240p/kg depending on meat and breed. Several hill hogs these if meat would be respectable from £75 - £90. Plainer hogs meeting much steadier demand. The time is nearly all over for the hogs, only weight and meat will be required.

CULL EWES - 2025, GOATS - 18

Auctioneers - Rob Meadmore/Phil Jones

Smaller entry but much improved trade, with all buyers much more animated and competitive. Not many 'posh' sheep about but a good solid trade on big meaty crossbreds from £120 - £150. Once again lean Suffolk ewes fitted everyone's bill between £90 - £117.

Easiest to sell of all were the 'festival' sheep, Welsh speckle and Cheviots with all the strength over £100, Cheviots to £119.50, Beulah's to £121 and bunches from £80 - £95. Mule ewes, the fatter the better, topping at £140.

Rams okay too, better examples from £130 - £150. Our thanks to the vendors who presented their sheep shorn - it is definitely an advantage when selling them. Overall average was up £18 on the week.

The festival begins next Tuesday, please feel free to check with Rob Meadmore or Phil Jones about expected demand.
