BREEDING EWES - 1107

Auctioneer - Rory Matthews

A much enlarged and more varied entry this week with the best ewes on offer well competed for and finding plenty of customers, albeit at a little less money on last week. Several older ewes lacking a touch of condition and recently weaned with purchasers noticeably more selective on these types.

2 year old ewes again proving to be the fashion with these not very plentiful and topping at £195 from Mr J T Hartland, New House Farm for a strong pen of Suffolk x Mules with other 2's to £190 for both Texel and Suffolk bred ewes from M/s T A Atkinson, Lower Hendre. Other Texel 2's to £178, again from M/s Hartland.

Some very powerful Suffolk x 4's/5's to £180 for two bunches from M/s D Morgan & Sons, Pencelli Court with other well put together older ewes from £160 to £175 from M/s Williams and other vendors. Smaller flock aged ewes from £140 to £155 if backed and young enough. Several older and leaner types forward, many of these looking tired and all of their age described would have been better sold in the cull section. Customers looking for correct breeding sheep and prepared to pay for the right goods.

Several well bred yearlings on offer however no showstoppers, seeing a top of £185 for those Texel x from M/s Westwood Farm, with Suffolk x Mules to £182 twice from Mr E J Lewis, Oakhall Farm and M/s M J & E Jones & Son, Tyrprentre. Other bunches hitting the £180 mark with smaller yearlings in the £170s, and leaner types meeting a limited enquiry, although plenty early enough for yearlings at present.

Suffolk x 2's to £195 ~ Texel x Mule yearlings to £185
Suffolk x Mule yearlings to £182 ~ Suffolk x 4's/5's to £180

STORE LAMBS - 1090

Auctioneer - Greg Christopher

A larger entry with trade exceptionally sharp throughout and a busy ringside of purchasers present all active for lambs. With the recent rainfall altering the grass situation demand looks set to remain strong in the coming weeks for store lambs.

A pure Suffolk ewe lamb topping the day at £160, other strong lambs to £119, £118 and £113, all for Suffolk x lambs. Stronger lambs trading £94-£109.50 with nearly a fifth of the lambs trading £100 plus.

Farming lambs trading £85-£93.50, with smarter sorts either side of £90. Smaller, younger farming lambs looking a real price and from £76-£84, with plainer sorts and Mule types £70-£76. Medium keeping Mules wethers to £79, with fresh Cheviot x lambs to £73.50.

Smaller lambs looked the trade of the day with these from £50-£70 depending on breed and potential. Very small from £32-£45, these would include hill types and some late born sorts.

Plenty of ram lambs, stronger smarter sorts from £88-£108, smaller sorts from £70-£84 and finding several customers for the time of year, with the very small in the £40's and £50's.

More clean lambs required in the coming weeks to meet the demand.
