2765 BREEDING EWESAuctioneers - Rory Matthews/Rob Meadmore

The largest entry of the season to date for a regular Tuesday. Trade remained at strong levels with several fresh faces ringside to absorb the numbers.

Proceedings kicked off with some excellent Pure Texels flying to £360 and £270 for yearling ewes from M/s EGC Davies & Co, Llwynchwta. Another strong consignment from JR Joseph & Co, Lloyney saw bunches of five realise £230, £220, £218 and £212. Blue Texels later in the day to £235 for a yearling and £210 for flock ages from ID & SB James, Highbury.

A wide variety of commercial ewes with these again easily dispatched at good money. Texel cross Mules to £200 from M/s TL Whittall and Texel cross Cheviot yearlings to £195 from JS & MS Kinsey with Suffolk cross to £198 from M/s G Saunders. Plenty of well-bred Texel and Suffolk cross yearlings trading £175 to £188 with the smaller types £150 to £170.

Mules again very well represented seeing whitefaced yearlings to £195 for the pick of RH Powell, Middle Crochran's consignment. Coloured's to £185 twice with no end of Welsh Mule yearling ewes £160 to £180. Smaller farming ewes in the £150's. Very small yearlings of all breeds less money again however meeting several customers in the £120 to £148 bracket.

Some lovely runs of flock aged ewes offered seeing two year old Mules to £175 from B Powell & Co, Modrydd. Texel cross threes and fours to £158 from DT Edwards & Co, Bailea and the genuine dispersal from M/s PJ & CM Lewis, Llandeviron seeing Colored Mules trading £145 to £165. Several older North Country Mules forward seeing twos and threes to £160 with plenty of business done between £140 and £155. Suffolk cross threes and fours to £165.

Cheviots now making an appearance as we head towards October with these very much in fashion. Brecknock Hill types thundering to £188 for yearlings consigned by M/s JP Sevenoaks & Sons, Greidol Farm who saw others cashed at £180 and £170 twice. North Country Cheviots to £165 and £160 from I Sevenoaks & Sons, Shepherds Hill. Two year old Cheviots to £142 from M/s AR Jones, Green Stalls Farm.

A super show of lambs that attracted a host of buyers from the width and breadth of the country which resulted in a fantastic trade throughout and an overall average of £84.50/head to include some very small types. The mixed lambs stronger still averaging just shy of £89/head and made up over half the entry.

The ram lambs topped the day for Suffolks making £114/head with the ewe lambs not far behind at £111.50 and averaging £87/head. All types in excellent demand with no shortage of customers across the whole spectrum. Some of the dearest lambs sold were those smaller, longer term farming lambs trading between £75 and £85/head. Anything nicely bred with frame was £90/head plus.

A good show of lambs required next week, please enter as soon as possible!
