

2023 HIGH FLYERS SALE REPORT

Tel: 01432 761882

SATURDAY 21st OCTOBER 2023

89 PEDIGREE CHAROLLAIS

Auctioneer - Rory Matthews

Hereford Market Auctioneers are pleased to report another successful sale of Charollais females at the annual sale High Flyers production sale. Trade not quite as boisterous as last year, however respectable averages and a good clearance achieved with ewes finding new homes in every corner of the UK.

The sale leader was a tremendous yearling ewe consigned by Arwyn and Jane Thomas which sold for 2600gns. Scanned single to Logie Durno Barbarian, this ewe finds her new home in Somerset with Tom Newth's Prestleigh flock. Not far behind at 2000gns was another shearling from the Arbyn Flock, this time for a Arbryn Tonto daughter carrying twins to Arbyn Atilla and headed to East Sussex with BJ & DE Baker's Olives Flock.

Next up in the shearling section at 1500gns was a Loanhead Washington daughter from the Robleston Flock, who joins David Lewis' Pembroke Flock. Also at 1500gns was the pen leader from Jim Neils Runningburn's flock for a super ewe carrying a single to Hollylodge Bon Accord and picked up by Mr D Anderson of County Antrim, Northern Ireland. Next up at 1400gns was a member of Jenifer Curtis' 2023 show team, selling to David Roberts for his Boyo Flock in Shropshire.

Several other yearlings trading 1000gns to 1200gns however purchasers seemingly more cautious this year with a far greater proportion 500gns to 800gns.

Ewe lambs topped at 1500gns for the pick of Emyr Hughes' Bronwydd flocks smart consignment. This lamb, which is sired by the noted Foxhill Va Va Voom, joins the sale leader in heading to the Prestleigh flock. Three ewe lambs then followed at 1000gns, one from the Kirkhouse flock and two from Curran Family, Wernfawr. Other ewe lambs to 800gns, with the smaller lambs offered generally 350gns to 600gns.

Sale Averages

70 Shearling Ewes £782.50

19 Ewe Lambs £703.57

TOP PRICED FEMALES

