COUPLES - 649 ewes/881 lambs

Auctioneer - Rory Matthews

The largest entry of the season thus far with a wider variety of outfits on offer. Trade continues to be very strong on the shorter-term outfits, regardless of breed, with purchasers having one eye on the Qurbani Festival in June. Trade remains more selective on the longer-term couples.

Highlight of the day a super consignment from M/s DS, DJ & TT Evans, Coedhirion who saw some super lots of embryo recipients rearing Pure Texel ram lambs realise a fantastic £650, £600 and £420. Blue Texel ewes with twins to £425 and £370, with Dorsets with strong singles to £225 all from the same stable.

Continental and Suffolk bred outfits less plentiful however still several singles trading £200 to £235 and twins £300 to £340. Younger ewes commanding a sizeable premium with purchasers looking for breeding replacements. Yearlings with singles to £268 for a bunch of five from Harry & Rory Owen, Danybryn. Suffolk cross ewes with two to £345 for some super outfits from Mr SJ Cross, Lynhales Farm with another strong run from M/s ME & AW Wright, Cannock seeing several double couples trading from £320 to £345 for Texel and Suffolk cross yearlings up to full mouthed.

Several Mules forward, the majority being broken mouthed, with these a touch easier on last week especially if the ewes looked tired or the lambs a bit young. White-faced types with strong singles to £215 from Messrs Evans, Coedhirion with ewes with a lamb and a half to £250 (£100 per life) from T Davies & Partners, Red House. Several singles trading £180 to £190 with the older and longer-term sorts £150 to £175. Handful of plain ewes with younger singles in the £140's. Twins £240 to £260 for the stronger end with the majority £210 to £230. Twelve old North Countries with eighteen Suffolk cross lambs to £235 (£94 per life) from M/s R & J Carter & Sons. Plain and old ewes with two at foot £180 to £205. Easy care ewes with twins to £210.

Messrs Prosser & Jones, Blaenglyn Farm made a start with their weekly consignment of four-year-old Cheviot ewes with Charollais lambs seeing bunches of eight make £168, £165, and £160 twice, all for singles.

Hill ewes becoming more plentiful with each passing week. Welsh ewes with strong singles to £150 from M/s DB & DR Williams, Gellidafolog with harder types to £142 and £140 from M/s JE Stacey & KA Stacey-Lewis. Several Welsh and Speckle ewes with one trading £120 to £130 with very small/hard ewes with healthy lambs £100 to £115. Twins less money per life is to be expected and generally trading £150 to £180 depending on the goods. Very few under £50 a life.

Average £76.82 per life / £181.92 per outfit
